

2000

- 2000, 90th anniversary of Guiding promoted on cookie box
- GGC is represented by one member at Rural/Urban Youth Conference
- Donna Leonard of Calgary appointed Chief Commissioner of GGC
- 2001, TREX manual is published for the first time (backpacking)
- 2002, You Go Girl was the theme for GGC national advertising and recruitment campaign
- 2003, All Girl Guide cookies are produced in tree nut-free and peanut-free bakery
- Cookies now baked by Dare Foods, a Canadian-owned company
- Gretchen McCurdy appointed Chief Commissioner of GGC
- 2005, Lady Rodney Challenge created to commemorate Alberta history
- 2006, Myrtle Corkum appointed Chief Commissioner of GGC
- Provincial Guide/Pathfinder rally held at Ukranian cultural Heritage Village
- 2007, 80 years of Girl Guide Cookie selling—it all started in Saskatchewan
- Girls Need Guides new tagline for advertising and recruitment campaign
- 100th anniversary of Scouting
- 2008, Chocolatey mint and classic cookie boxes get a new look, highlighting the camaraderie, teamwork and variety of activities that Guiding offers
- 2009, GGC reduces transfat in the classic chocolate and vanilla cookies
- GGC launches first national cookie selling rewards initiative, Cookie All Stars
- Girl Greatness Starts Here is new tagline for advertising and recruitment campaigns
- Chris Burton of Lethbridge appointed National Commissioner of GGC